

HENBURY AND BRENTRY COMMUNITY COUNCIL.

Quarterly meeting held on Thursday 17th July 2008.

Before the meeting there was a presentation from ALDI over their plans for the old swimming pool site. Phil Warner from Aldi gave the outline plans followed by Dan Templeton from Turley Associates and Gavin Summerell from Kendall Kingscott. Briefly ALDI had purchased the site to build an open a supermarket there would be parking for 74 cars with opening hours 9am to 8pm Monday to Saturday and 10am to 4pm on Sundays. Planning permission had not been submitted at present. Many questions were asked and answered.

QUARTERLY MEETING. Began at 8.10pm

Chairman	Ted Marshall
Treasurer	Tim Parkinson
Minute Secretary	Roy Pepworth.

31 person were present.
Apologies Cheryl Coles.

Minutes were amended with two alterations that will be included with these minutes. The minute secretary apologised for the errors.

TRUSTEES. It was proposed and seconded that Paul Thompson become a Trustee with Ted Marshall. This was approved.

FINANCES.

The treasurer reported the following:-

Significant Expenditure since April

£2432 contribution to CCTV for Brookridge and Barlands House

£1335 Newsletter printing

Donations to Newsletter fund

£100 from Southmead Police(PCSO Abigail Elliott-Taylor and Inspector Mark Jackson.

£ 10 from S.Schulze & A.Schubert

CURRENT BALANCES IN OUR ALLOCATED FUNDS

£1374 Safety

£2232 Events

£ 587 Newsletter

£3975 Facilities

£5891 General

£ 590 Others

TOTAL FUNDS £14649

Expecting £5,000 from Neighbourhood Partnership

Approved from PC Nick Merrick for Henbury School for £1,000 for Ben Nevis expedition

City Council paid £10,000 for our conference.

COUNCILLORS REPORT.

There had been three meetings with ALDI over their plans.

Councillor Derek Pickup reported they were planning an appeal against the granting of a licence to Bargain Booze but had not received the approval letter from the council

Bristol Charities has planned to make Ben Gough House into a dementia centre. The question of a community centre was raised and the councillors agreed to see if there was any space in the new revamped Ben Gough House.

Councillor Mark Weston reminded the meeting that the dispersal order ended on 27th July, 2008. He also said that plans were being prepared for 2,500 houses behind the Clifton Rugby Ground and this was in South Gloucestershire..

POLICE. PC Nick Merrick gave plans for Henbury School to climb Ben Nevis with 22 making the trip. There would be a Drama School at the school between 28th July and 1st September.

LIBRARY. No report

HA-HA Four weeks activities planned with 20- 25 signed up.

HENBURY HEALTHY WALKING GROUP goes from strength to strength. The programmes were now printed by Henbury School and we were delighted with the work. The Treasure reminded council that at an earlier meeting the council had agreed to fund the printing.

FUTURE GROUP. Paul Thompson reminded all of the future group which met at Emmanuel Chapel

ANY OTHER BUSINESS. Jean Sallybank raised the question of no seat at the bus stop outside the library. Councillor Derek Pickup was investigating.

Nothing for older people was mentioned but it is difficult to find the accommodation.

A possible zebra crossing in Knole Lane was mentioned.

There being no other business the meeting ended at 9.04pm

NEXT MEETING 16TH OCTOBER 2008 AT 7.30PM